Subscription Information

Would you rather read 50 000 articles or 120?

An enormous amount of work goes on behind the scenes to make sure that Evidence-Based Medicine provides you with all the information you need. We scan over 100 journals and around 50000 articles each year so that we can identify the most important and valid 120 research articles. This means you'll get all the important research material you need in just 6 issues, saving you time to concentrate on other things. So for time-saving, distilled research information, make sure you subscribe to Evidence-Based Medicine.

Evidence-Based Medicine is published bimonthly. Each issue includes abstracts and commentaries for 20 articles (8 of which also appear in ACP Journal Club).
